CM Eknath Shinde's committed approach led to decongestion at Chandi Chowk

Pune: Exactly a year after Chief Minister Eknath Shinde took it upon himself to rid Chandi Chowk of chaos, a new flyover was inaugurated. On Saturday, August 12, 2023, Union Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari inaugurated the flyover over Chandani Chowk. The work on decongesting Chandani Chowk was envisaged 7 years ago. Several flyovers and underpasses were proposed for the coveted project. However, there was little development up to the end of 2015 when a bridge constructed in the 90s on Mumbai-Bangalore Highway was the main cause for delay in the work. Complicating matters further was acquisition of land for the project in August last year, CM Shinde was on his way to Satara when he also got caught in the endless jam at Chandani Chowk. He witnessed rate commuters along his convey in the jam, narrated how they lose precious time on daily basis because of the congestion. Instead of zooming past in his conveyer, the jam cleared up the CM sought details of the project. Within days he called for a meeting of all the concerned officials on the site. He was told that the bridge connecting Bavdhan to Paud way back in the 90s was major obstruction in carrying out work on Chandani Chowk. Also, the bridge had narrowed leading to jams. Without much ado, he issued instructions to demolish the bridge by roping in experts. With CM at the helm of affairs and constantly taking review, NHA appointed Noida based agency Edifice Engineering. The firm had just demolished twin towers in Noida after court orders. The bridge was demolished on October 2 last year and path for development of the underpass and flyovers was cleared. Within months of the obstruction getting demolished, the Chowk has witnessed a whole lot of progress.
